

Svenska Läkaresällskapet

The Swedish Society of Medicine

SCIENCE
EDUCATION
QUALITY

September 23, 2002

To whom it may concern

Certificate of attendance

We confirm that Vangelis Argiriou participated in the Berzelius symposium 59 on "Perinatal Brain injury: pathophysiology and clinical aspects" on September 8-9, 2003 in Göteborg, Sweden.

The symposium had leading experts in the field and the topics of the programme were as follows

The symposium was organised by
Swedish Society of Medicine
Perinatal Center, Institute for the Health of Women and Children
Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Sahlgrenska University Hospital/Östra

Program

Monday, September 8

07.30–08.00 Registration and Coffee
08.00–08.15 Welcome address and general information.
Henrik Hagberg, Organising committee

Chairpersons: Bengt Hagberg, Ingemar Kjellmer

08.15–09.00 Brain injury in preterm infants: recent discoveries in neuroimaging.
Terrie Inder, Melbourne, Australia
09.00–09.45 White matter injury: clinical background and pathophysiological mechanisms.
Joseph J Volpe, Boston, USA

09.45–10.30 Coffee & sandwich and Poster session

Chairpersons: Henrik Hagberg, Karin Sävman

10.30–11.15 Immunoinflammatory mechanisms and brain injury.
Hugh Perry, Southampton, UK
11.15–12.00 Fetal inflammatory response syndrome.
Roberto Romero, Bethesda, USA
12.00–12.45 Fetal inflammatory response and neurological sequelae in preterm infants.
Olaf Dammann, Hannover, Germany

12.45–13.45 Lunch

Address
P.O. Box 738
SE-101 35 Stockholm
Sweden

Office
Klara Östra Kyrkogata 10

Telephone
+46 8 440 88 60
Telefax
+46 8 440 88 99

E-mail
sls@svls.se
Internet
www.svls.se